- Mens* 49 yrs of age and under
- Senior* 50-61 yrs of age
- Super Senior* 62 yrs of age and over
- Womens* All ages

Senior and Super seniors will participate in both the adult and their respective divisions. Players may win prizes in one division only. A minimum of 6 players will be required to contest a division.

Golf Cars / Caddies

Contestants may bring their own caddie, carry their bag or use a golf car. Golf cars are included at The Highlands and Bowes Creek. In the event that a player elects to have his caddie drive, the player will be required to walk. If the player elects to drive, the caddie will be required to walk. A maximum of 2 golf cars per group will be allowed.

Rules

USGA Rules shall govern all forms of play except where modified by a local rule. The committee will determine the rules of the competition and all rulings shall be final.

Course Rotation

Saturday Oct. 1	The Highlands	18 holes
Sunday Oct. 2	Bowes Creek	18 holes

Eligibility

Open to any amateur golfer regardless of residency.

Format

36 hole stroke play. The player who returns the lowest score in the championship flight shall be declared the champion.

Flights

Players will be flighted based upon their handicap index as of Sept 15, 2016. Championship-D flights will be contested based upon the number of entries. The lowest 15 handicaps will comprise the championship flight. The next 15 will comprise the A flight until all players are flighted.

Prizes

The Elgin Open champion will receive a trophy. All flight winners and runner ups will receive gift cards redeemable for golf shop merchandise.

Cost

The cost of $225 includes the tournament entry, daily greens fees, cart fees, tee prize and a buffet lunch at the conclusion of the final round. The fee for Bowes Creek members is $100. The fee for Highlands season pass holders is $125.
