POLICY GUIDELINES

- A membership card will be provided as may be required for identification purposes.
- All members are required to check in the golf shop before playing. Access to the practice facility is granted by providing identification to the golf staff.
- No outside food or beverage will be allowed on the property.
- A cancellation courtesy call of 72 hours is requested for all tee times.
- Members are responsible for themselves and their guests with regard to excessive damage caused to the facility, property or golf cart.
- BCCC requires appropriate golf attire (collared shirts). The identification of inappropriate apparel is at the sole discretion of the golf management staff.
- Members may be asked to leave the premises, or have their membership suspended or revoked for any of the following: physical or verbal abuse, destruction of club property, commission on lewd or unlawful activity on the grounds, violation of club policies or rules, any conduct that detracts from management's right to manage the facility and preserve the integrity of BCCC.
- The course may be closed from time to time, due to weather, maintenance issues or other events.

 No shows will be charged to the member at the prevailing guest fee. All tee times that are booked and not played are the responsibility of the member booking the tee time. Non compliance will result in membership suspension until paid.*

By signing below, I understand and accept the terms and conditions of the Bowes Creek Country Club and understand that it is my responsibility to make my guests aware of and accept these terms. I further waive any rights to hold harmless any golf management, the City of Elgin or its designated representatives in case of any personal injury on the grounds of Bowes Creek Country Club.
